What volunteer services are you interested in providing to the GCCR? (Check those in which you have interest.)

If you are interested in Fostering or Adopting a rescued Cavalier, please submit a Foster/Adoption Application (see www.gccavalierrescue.org). Your answers to these questions will help us match your interests and skills to a volunteer assignment.

12. Are you interested in education & mentoring?

- Listen well and give thoughtful advice by phone / email
- Talk about Cavaliers and GCCR at public events
- Mentor others about Cavaliers or Rescue

13. Tell us about your rescue abilities and experience:

Have you been involved with animal rescue in the past? If so, tell us about your experience.

How many and what kind of dogs have you owned? Do you have any dogs now? What kind? Male or female? How old?

Do you have any training or experience that would enable you to test or evaluate a rescued dog's temperament?

14. Tell us about your Cavalier breed knowledge:

*

Do you feel competent to identify a Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, that is, to determine whether a stray dog is a Cavalier as opposed to a Cavalier mix or other breed?

15. Are you an experienced dog trainer?

- Yes No (clear)

16. Dog Training & Activities.

- Agility
- Behavior
- Obedience
- Rally
- Therapy
- Tracking
- Other

17. Tell us about your training experiences:

Have you ever completed an obedience course with a dog? What level?

Are you involved in any dog sports, dog-assisted therapy, or other activities involving dogs?

18. Can you transport rescued Cavaliers?

Would you be willing to transport a rescued dog? If so, how far would you be willing to travel (each way)? Is your vehicle large enough to accommodate a Cavalier-size crate(approx. 18" x 24")?

19. Can you be a shelter liaison?

If you are willing to check your local shelter(s) regularly for Cavaliers and establish a working relationship with shelter staff, please tell us which shelter(s).
